Malicious cyberattacks are on the rise in K-12 schools

Without the right solution, delivering security in educational institutions can bring uncertainty and unforeseen expenses...

4,305
education institutions were victim to ransomware attacks

61%
of all breaches involve stolen or brute forced credentials

$20B
total school system downtime and recovery costs

Who would you trust to protect the data and privacy of your students?

1
unified solution

8
Gartner leadership positions held

26
vendors replaced with one partner

Microsoft 365 A5 is a single unified solution that effectively secures user identity and access, protects against threats, and manages sensitive data.

Currently leading the industry in 8 Gartner leadership positions, Microsoft has the most robust security, management, and compliance tools. With Microsoft 365 A5 security capabilities, schools can replace up to 26 vendors while still supporting an inclusive and collaborative learning environment for all students, in all academic settings.

How will you choose to protect the privacy and data of your students?
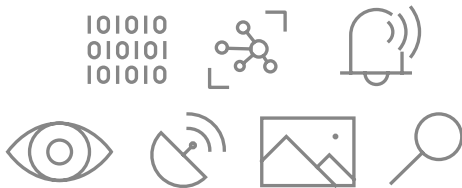

Education institutions often rely on multiple vendors for:

Identity & Access Management

6+ vendors

OR

![Microsoft]
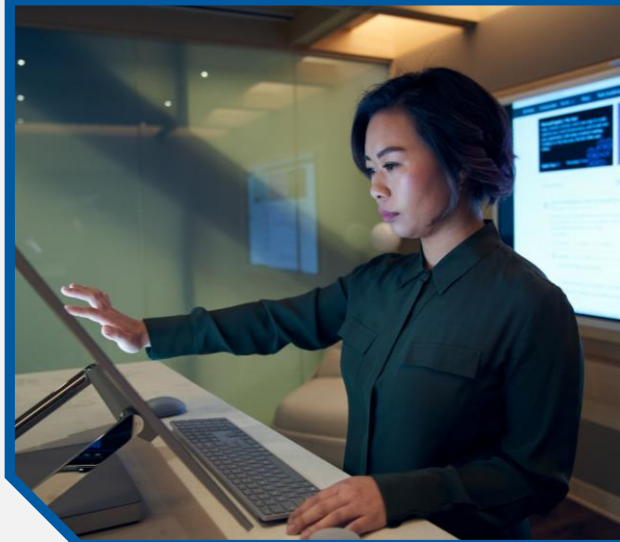

The M365 A5 solution can replace as many as 26 vendors to:

- Secure user access
- Protect against threats
- Manage sensitive data

Threat Detection & Response

7+ vendors

Data Governance & Protection

9+ vendors

Microsoft M365 A5 leads the industry with the most robust security, management, and compliance tools built to effectively support teaching and learning for all students in all academic settings.